

How Can I Forgive? Why Should I?

You've been hurt. Really hurt. You pick at your hurt like an open wound and it festers into bitterness and anger. But the anger hurts, too. So you feel worse and worse and worse.

Meet the Beebes; a family that truly knows what hurt is all about. When they moved to the Pacific Islands, the Beebes had their own idea of the story they would one day write about their sojourn there.

That story certainly did not include terror, trauma and abuse. Yet, one balmy tropical evening, exactly those horrors overtook them in one nightmarish rush.

But this book is not simply the story of a night of terror. It is the real-life story of one family's journey through that terror to a place of peace. How? By using the hidden power of forgiveness.

Follow the Beebes as they discover God's perfect antidote to hurt, anger, bitterness and fear. Learn how to bring this healing elixir into your life.

If you have ever been hurt...
If you've ever asked, "Where was God when I was hurting?"...
If you want to heal and get on with your life ...
This book is for you.

Darrell & Sherri Beebe

Sharing a message of

Hope, Healing & Forgiveness

Ordinary People + Extraordinary Circumstances = Amazing Opportunity

Darrell and Sherri Beebe and their children suffered a traumatic and violent attack in 1986 while they were serving as missionaries in the island nation of Palau.

While trying to protect his family, Darrell was beaten, stabbed, hit over the head with a shotgun swung like a baseball bat, and then with a gun held to his head, his wife was beaten, kidnapped and then horribly abused. His daughter was abused and his son was assaulted and threatened with death.

When they were finally able to escape they learned that Darrell's head injuries were still life-threatening. He was flown to Hawaii for emergency brain surgery. During that trip God miraculously healed him prior to surgery.

The greater miracle is the way that God has healed the family's emotional wounds and taught them the power of true forgiveness.

After 20 years, the Beebe family returned to Palau to share a message of hope, healing and forgiveness, and God's special love for the people of Palau. God was faithful during that special visit and He performed many miracles of healing and salvation.

As they share you will learn:

- that during the long night of abuse, God was with them
- of God's miraculous intervention and healing
- how they dealt with the fear, reoccurring thoughts and nightmares.
- about the court trial and convictions
- what God said in an audible voice about why people suffer
- how the devil attempts to deceive in the area of un-forgiveness
- what the Bible says about forgiveness and what we learned
- of their return trip to Palau
- what the governor, vice president and high chief of Palau had to say
- of their face to face encounter with one of their attackers
- why God withheld his hand during their attack
- about the many miracles God performed, including 4 deaf ears opened
- how to live in the freedom of forgiveness instead of the bitterness of un-forgiveness
